Specification

The examiner has not checked the specification to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors (grammatical, typographical and idiomatic). Cooperation of the applicant(s) is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant(s) may become aware of in the specification, in the claims and in any future amendment(s) that applicant(s) may file.

Applicant(s) is also requested to complete the status of any copending applications referred to in the specification by their Attorney Docket Number or Application Serial Number, if any.

The status of the parent application(s) and/or any other application(s) cross-referenced to this application, if any, should be updated in a timely manner.

Election/Restriction

Claims 1, 2 and 7 remain withdrawn from consideration without traverse.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The rejection of the claims under 35 USC 112, second paragraph has been obviated by the amendment to the claims filed August 18, 2010.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

- (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 3-5 and 8-11 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 4,544,793 to Okado et al. in view of JP 61-058812 A, for the reasons set forth in the office action of January 13, 2010.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed August 18, 2010 and the accompanying affidavit and experimental report have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant has provided a comparative showing of the instantly claimed method in contrast to a combination of a seed crystal make by Japanese document '812 employed in the process of Okado et al.

The examiner has carefully considered the data presented, but at this time, absent further explanation, it is not probative. It appears that the combined process of page 2 in the experimental report is similar in nature to the method of the invention set forth on page 1, and it appears that the alkali metal to aluminum ratio is commensurate in the raw materials of both examples; however the added seed crystal amount is significantly smaller in the comparative example, making it impossible for the examiner to determine what difference is responsible for a difference in size of the final product produced, and whether or not such difference is recited in the instant claims. The arguments state that one would need to employ a seed crystal with characteristics similar to those employed by applicant. However, it appears that the seed crystal of the JP '812 reference is similar in both size and composition to the instant disclosure, which merely recites MFI, ferrierite or mordenite crystal of average particle diameter of not more than 1.5 microns.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
